

NEWS FROM THE BAKERVILLE LIBRARY

Last-Minute Edition · Summer 2009

happening @ your library™

...and the livin' is easy...

Don't go to the shore yet. On Saturday, August 1st, the Bakerville Marketplace will run from 9 am to 2 pm, and the library's Used Book Sale from 9 am to 3 pm.

We know you want to be part of them, so here's a step-by-step:

Step 1: Sign up for a booth. You have always wanted to; perhaps you just didn't recognize the longing. Call Milissa Woodward at 482-7561 to sell crafts, toys, food, treats for pets, plants, herbs and potpourri, jewelry cleaning, and on and on.

Step 2: Decide what you will donate to the teacup auction. This features gift baskets, gift certificates, toys, bottles of wine, bouquets of fresh flowers, plants, cakes, massages, and other enticing items. You may donate something yourself, or ask your favorite business for a donation. Drop off your donation at the library any time during open hours, the week before the Marketplace.

Step 3: Clean out your bookshelves and bring to the library all the books you're finished with. As usual, there are a few limitations: no text books, computer books, condensed books, or magazines, and please make sure your donated books are clean, fragrant, and in good condition.

Step 4: Help sort books. You will remember from years past that our books are sorted within an inch of their lives and the categories clearly labeled with signs. That is the result of many volunteer hours. This is an opportunity for the literate community of the Bakerville Library to show their stuff. Call Pam FitzGerald at 496-9788 for more details.

Step 5: Sign up to bake for our bake sale. This is your chance to try out the cinnamon cappuccino cookies from tastespotting.com without having to eat the whole batch yourself, and you know that's what would happen without our bake sale. Find the sign-up sheet on the front desk in the library.

Step 6: Arrive early on August 1st, prepared to start your holiday shopping at the teacup auction, browse the varied offerings at many booths, and get your face painted. We see that you've been dieting for a couple of years now—you look lovely. It's time to give in and try something from the bake sale. And look at all the books! We usually get around 5,000 of them for you to choose from. Get up for the early bird opening at 8:30 am—pay $7, and get first pick! You have until 3 pm (an hour longer than the Marketplace) to find something you like.

Can you even wait? 🏠

May's Murder Mystery fundraiser raised more than $13,000 for both the New Hartford libraries. Even more important, everyone had a great time, and no one suspected the murderer. Or Blake Hall's secret. Thanks to the committee, and to everyone who donated, attended, bid, danced, laughed, and otherwise participated. For the full story, see bakervillelibrary.org. 🏠

Summer Reading Program Reminder

Everyone who fills out a reading journal, reads at least 10 books, and comes into the library at least three times by September 1st, receives the following:

- A paperback book of your choice, to be picked up at the library in the fall. Thanks to the New Hartford Women's Club, who is sponsoring the reading program again this summer.
- A certificate for a kiddie-size ice cream from Hogie's Sweet Shoppe.
- A certificate for a kid's meal at Applebee's and a coupon for Subway.
- Your picture on the annual poster.

The rewards of summer are great! 🏠

More Rewards of Summer

Every summer, the library beefs up its selection for students, with extra juvenile and young adult fiction from the state lending system. This includes hard copies as well as audiobooks on CD and Playaway (preloaded digital player you use with your own headphones).

And don't forget—you can borrow these passes for family outings:

- Free admission to the waterfront at Brodie.
- Free admission to the Wadsworth Museum.
- Discounted admission to Mystic Aquarium. 🏠

BOOKS NEEDED

for the Bakerville Library's Used Book Sale, Saturday,
August 1st.

Please drop off books* at the library. Call 496-9788 for more information; please leave your name and number and you'll get a call back.

Books must be in good condition. Please, no text books, computer books, condensed books, or magazines—they don't sell.*

Baking Help Needed

Saturday, August 1st, the Marketplace's Bake Sale will need your delicious homemade cookies, brownies, cakes, and pies. Please drop off your contribution either Friday during the library's open hours (2–6 pm) or Saturday morning (9 am on). 🏠

Thanks to the New Hartford Farmers' Market for their lemonade fundraiser, which raised more than $100 for both the town libraries, on Friday, July 3rd.

Watch for the Bakerville Library booth at the Farmers' Market on July 31st. 🏠
